

NEW HIRE PACKET

vJan2019

Welcome to INFINITI HR.

Your Employer has contracted with INFINITI HR to provide you with some of the most comprehensive and flexible Payroll, Human Resource, Employee Benefits and Risk Management services. Our goal is to make your employer’s job easier and to provide you with extensive employee benefit options.

At INFINITI HR we have several different service models, so you may hear terms like Professional Employer Organization (PEO) or Administrative Service Organization (ASO).

The PEO model establishes a co-employment relationship with your present employer that divides the duties of the employer into “On-site Employer”, and “Professional Employer.” This relationship allows you to become part of a larger group so that you can access additional resources and benefits, while providing administrative relief to your current employer.

The ASO model allows INFINITI HR to become your off-site Human Resources Department under a more traditional service provider relationship.

We hope that you will be as excited as we are that your current employer has decided to partner with INFINITI HR. If you have any questions you can always call us at our toll free number listed below.

Employment Policies

DRUG AND ALCOHOL FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

INFINITI HR and our clients strive to provide a safe work environment and encourage personal health. In keeping with this policy, the company considers the abuse of drugs or alcohol on the job to be an unsafe and a counter productive work practice. It is, therefore, company policy that an employee detected to have alcohol or illegal drugs in his/her system, in possession of, using, selling, trading, or offering for sale illegal drugs or alcohol during working hours, will be subject to disciplinary action including discharge. (Company sponsored activities which may include the service of alcoholic beverages are not included in this provision. Discretion should be exercised by the employee to avoid overindulging in the consumption of alcohol.) Substance Abuse includes possession, use, purchase, or sale of drugs or alcohol on company premises (including the parking lots).

Employees will be required to submit to drug and/or alcohol testing at a laboratory chosen by the company for the following reasons:

1. Observed alcohol or drug abuse during work hours on company premises.
2. Apparent physical state of impairment.
3. Incoherent mental state.
4. Accidents or other actions that provide reasonable cause to believe the employee may be under the influence.
5. As required by any government programs such as the US Department of Transportation.

In addition to testing for the purposes above, Infiniti HR and its clients reserve the right to randomly test employees. Refusal to such testing will subject an employee to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

ANTI-HARRASSMENT

INFINITI HR and its client companies have zero tolerance for and therefore prohibit all forms of discriminatory practices, including unlawful harassment of employees by managers, fellow employees, and employees of contractors, visitors or any other third parties on Infiniti HR or client company premises. This prohibition includes but is not limited to any demeaning, insulting, embarrassing or intimidating behavior directed at any employee because of their race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, national origin, genetic information, disability or any other protected characteristic as established by law.

Sexual harassment constitutes discrimination and is illegal under Federal, state and local laws. For the purposes of this policy, sexual harassment is defined, as in the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Guidelines, as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when, for example: (i) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; (ii) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or (iii) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Sexual harassment can take two distinct forms: quid pro quo and hostile work environment. One, quid pro quo harassment, occurs when submission to sexual conduct is made a condition of employment or employment benefits. Two, hostile work environment occurs when sexual or other discriminating and unlawful conduct unreasonably interferes with an employee's work performance or creates an intimidating, abusive, or offensive work environment.

Harassing conduct that is PROHIBITED includes, but is not limited to epithets, slurs or negative stereotyping, threatening, intimidating or hostile acts, denigrating jokes and display or circulation in the workplace of written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group (including through e-mail).

Incidents of alleged discrimination or harassment will be taken seriously by the client Company. Infiniti HR offers an HR Hotline for reporting and will assist with or guide a client company on how to investigate and proceed with corrective action if necessary.

Retaliation Is Prohibited

INFINITI HR and its client companies prohibit retaliation against any individual who reports discrimination or harassment or participates in an investigation of such reports. Retaliation against an individual for reporting harassment or discrimination or for participating in an investigation of a claim of harassment or discrimination is a serious violation of this policy and, like harassment or discrimination itself, will be subject to corrective action.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

Any individual who believes they have witnessed or been subject to discrimination, including unlawful harassment, regardless of the offender's identity or position, must report the circumstances as soon as possible to any one of the following: immediate Supervisor or Manager, authorized internal or INFINITI HR assigned Human Resources Administrator, Officer of the Company or similar high level Executive, or any person designated in the Employee Handbook as a Contact Person. Upon completion of any investigation, Infiniti HR or the client company will take appropriate action.

ADA and ADAA POLICY

INFINITI HR and client companies are committed to complying with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA). It is the policy of Infiniti HR and Client Company to not discriminate against any qualified employee with regard to any terms or conditions of employment because of the individual's disability or perceived disability so long as the qualified individual can perform the essential functions of the job.

Client Company will provide reasonable accommodations to a qualified individual with a disability so that they can perform the essential functions of a job unless doing creates an undue hardship to the client company.

INFINITI HR and Client Company will follow any state or local law that provides individuals with disabilities greater protection than the ADA & ADAAA.

This policy is neither exhaustive nor exclusive. Infiniti HR and Client Company is committed to taking all other actions necessary to ensure equal employment opportunity for persons with disabilities in accordance with the ADA, ADAAA and all other applicable federal, state, and local laws.

REQUESTING AN ACCOMODATION

If an employee feels that are in need of an accommodations, they should contact their immediate Supervisor or Manager, authorized internal or Infiniti HR assigned Human Resources Administrator, Officer of the Company or similar high level Executive, or any person designated in the Employee Handbook as a Contact Person.

PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

The following mandatory deductions will be made from every employee's gross wages: federal income tax, Social Security FICA tax, and applicable city and state taxes.

Every employee must fill out and sign a federal withholding allowance certificate, IRS Form W-4, on or before his or her first day on the job. This form must be completed in accordance with federal regulations.

The employee may fill out a new W-4 at any time when his or her circumstances change. Employees who paid no federal income tax for the preceding year and who expect to pay no income tax for the current year may fill out an Exemption from Withholding Certificate, IRS Form W-4E. Employees are expected to comply with the instructions on Form W-4. Questions regarding the propriety of claimed deductions may be referred to the IRS in certain circumstances.

Other optional deductions include the portion of group health insurance not paid by the company, which is deducted from each payroll check. Other voluntary contributions, such as credit union and pension plan, are also deducted each pay period. Any other deductions from pay require your voluntary, written and specific authorization to do so.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I acknowledge that I have received my copy of the INFINITI HR Employment Policies, contained within its New Hire Packet used by worksite employer.

I have read and understand these policies and acknowledge that they outline practices, expectations and guidelines set by INFINITI HR , agreed to by my worksite employer, that I am required to follow. I further understand that violations of the policies contained within, including but not limited to the anti-harassment policy, could result in corrective action, up to and including termination.

Since the information in these policies is subject to change as situations warrant, it is understood that changes in future new hire packets or policies within similar HR documents, such as my worksite employer's Employee Handbook, may supersede, revise, or eliminate one or more of the policies. These changes will be identified or communicated to me by my supervisor/manager or through similarly responsible worksite representatives. I accept responsibility for keeping informed of these changes.

I further acknowledge my understanding that my employment with INFINITI HR is considered at will and may be terminated at any time with or without cause. Only official executed, legally binding contracts of employment supersede employment at will

Form W-4 (2019)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2019 if both of the following apply.

- For 2018 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2019 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2019 expires February 17, 2020. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2019 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2019. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married filing jointly and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note: Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a child tax credit for each of your eligible children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year, and must have a valid social security number. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as a qualifying child who doesn't meet the age or social security number requirement for the child tax credit, or a qualifying relative. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Line G. Other credits. You may be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as tax credits for education (see Pub. 970). If you do so, your paycheck will be larger, but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account. Enter “-0-” on lines E and F if you use Worksheet 1-6.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income, such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero (“-0-”) on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/css/employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You aren't required to provide the information requested on a form that's subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
